The Wasted Vigil Nadeem

Aslam Nadeem Aslam's writing style had grated on my nerves when I read his book, Maps for Lost Lovers.

But I already had The Wasted Vigil with me, so I tried to read it too.

Again, the prose was almost painful to read. Consider this passage :

"The grandson of a watchsmith, he appeals for leniency from the god who decrees the point of no return. The moment when the arrow leaves the bow, ..the moment when poetic inspiration begins".
